

ATTENTION ALL HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS:

A Rare Opportunity to Gain a Deeper Understanding of the Armenian Reality and Current Affairs

PHOTO BY ERIC GRIGORIAN

FROM THE FIRST REPUBLIC TO THE VELVET REVOLUTION: 100 YEARS OF ACTIVISM

Presented by KHATCHIG MOURADIAN

Tuesdays, Starting November 6, 6:30 PM to 8 PM

Explore Armenian life around the world and in the homeland in this 5-week multi-media course. Discover Armenian cultural heritage, political life, and activism over the past century through PowerPoint presentations, digital media, short films, textual analysis, and discussions.

TOPICS

1. The Armenian Genocide and the First Republic
2. Historic Armenia: Sites, Memory, and Cultural Treasures
3. Identity and Survival in the Armenian Diaspora
4. Armenia and Artsakh: Challenges and Opportunities
5. Telling Stories: Armenians in Literature, Cinema, and New Media

TUITION: $125, $100 for siblings
REGISTRATION AND QUESTIONS
917.837.1297 or ara@edrcrop.net

LOCATION

ST. LEON ARMENIAN CHURCH

Grace and Charles Pinajian Youth Center
12-61 Saddle River Road, Fair Lawn, NJ 07410

INSTRUCTOR

Dr. Khatchig Mouradian is a lecturer in Middle Eastern, South Asian, and African Studies (MESAAS) at Columbia University.

In fall 2016, Mouradian served as the Henry S. Khanzadian Kazan Visiting Professor at California State University – Fresno. From 2015-2016, he was a visiting assistant professor at the Division of Global Affairs at Rutgers University.

Mouradian has taught courses on imperialism, mass violence, urban space and conflict in the Middle East, the aftermaths of war and mass violence, and human rights at Worcester State University in Massachusetts and Stockton University in New Jersey.

Mouradian is the author of articles on genocide, mass violence, and unarmed resistance, the co-editor of a forthcoming book on late-Ottoman history, and the editor of the peer-reviewed journal The Armenian Review.

Mouradian is also the recipient of the first Hrant Dink Justice and Freedom Award of the Organization of Istanbul Armenians (2014).