

ATTENTION ALL HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Here's a rare opportunity to gain a deeper understanding of the Armenian reality since the Armenian Genocide of 1915.

THE ARMENIANS: 100 YEARS OF REBUILDING

Presented by Khatchig Mouradian
Mondays, Nov 10 to Dec 8, 7:00 PM to 8:30 PM

Explore Armenian life around the world and in the homeland in this 5-week multi-media course. Discover Armenian cultural heritage, political life, and activism over the past century through PowerPoint presentations, digital media, short films, textual analysis, and discussions.

TOPICS

- ~The Armenian Genocide and its consequences
- ~Historic Armenia: sites, memory, and cultural treasures
- ~Hidden Armenians plus identity and survival of the Armenian diaspora as communities, networks, and activism
- ~Armenia and Artsakh today: challenges, and success stories
- ~Telling stories: Armenians in literature, cinema, and new media

TUITION

$125, $100 for siblings

REGISTRATION: GO TO

<http://stleon.org/sl/> to obtain a registration form or email Ara

QUESTIONS

917 837 1297 or ara@edrcorp.net

LOCATION

St. Leon Armenian Church,
Grace and Charles Pinajian Youth Center, 2nd Floor
12-61 Saddle River Road, Fair Lawn, NJ 07410

INSTRUCTOR

Khatchig Mouradian is the Coordinator of the Armenian Genocide Program at the Center for the Study of Genocide and Human Rights at Rutgers University, where he also teaches in the history and sociology departments as adjunct professor. Mouradian is also the recipient of the first Hrant Dink Freedom and Justice Medal (2014) of the Organization of Istanbul Armenians.

Mouradian has been actively involved in genocide and human rights education, delivering more than two hundred lectures and presentations in high schools and colleges nationwide since 2008. Mouradian has lectured extensively overseas, including in Armenia, Austria, Cyprus, Lebanon, Norway, Switzerland, Syria, Turkey, and the United Arab Emirates.

Mouradian is a PhD Candidate at the Strassler Center for Holocaust and Genocide Studies at Clark University, currently completing his dissertation, titled "Genocide and Humanitarian Resistance in Ottoman Syria, 1915-1917."

Mouradian was the editor of the Armenian Weekly from 2007-2014.