

The newly-ordained Bishop Daniel Findikyan will celebrate his first Episcopal Divine Liturgy among the faithful of the Eastern Diocese on Saturday, May 18, 2019.

The May 18 Divine Liturgy at New York's St. Vartan Armenian Cathedral will begin at 10 a.m. and be followed by a reception in the Diocesan Center's Haik and Alice Kavookjian Auditorium.

The entire public is invited to join dignitaries from our sister churches and people from across the Diocese for this joyous occasion, when our Primate will officially greet his people as their new bishop.
