2ND ANNUAL

SOCIALLY RELEVANT™ FILM FESTIVAL, NEW YORK

BORN IN ADANA

15 minutes, Canada - 2014 - (East Coast Premiere)

Director: David Hovan

The surrender of Adana to Turkey by the French, causes yet another upheaval and further deportation of the Armenians of that city in search for a new home.

MY MOTHER'S VOICE

25 minutes, USA, 2012 (New York Premiere)

Director: Kay Mouradian

The true story of a 14-year-old girl, orphaned in the Armenian genocide, who finds her way to America to marry a man she knows only from a photograph.

24/I CONFESS WITH FAITH

(24/Havadov) 15 minutes, Armenia, 2013 (US Premiere)

Director: Shahen Nazarenko

Two parallels...two souls...two dialogues...two worlds... a monastery and a city bustle. The film has been created on a basis of the prayer "I confess with faith" by one of the most noble and saintly leaders of Armenian Apostolic church St. Nerses Shnorhali (St. Nerses the Graceful).

CYPRUS SUMMER 1974

24 minutes, Cyprus, 2014 (World Premiere)

Director: Edith Weil

Cyprus wakes up to the sound of gunfire and war on a beautiful summer morning in July 1974. A thirteen-year-old schoolgirl writes a diary of the unfolding events.
