

A Conversation with Historian and Author

Talin Suciyan

Join Dr. Suciyan for compelling insights and to explore the pivotal Ottoman era of Tanzimat, which has a reputation for reform and equality.

She will present a radically different view of Tanzimat, one in which policies of oppression were set in motion which disenfranchised Armenians—foremost peasants, villagers, migrant workers, and vulnerable women—in every respect and set the foundation for the policies of governance throughout the 20th and 21st centuries.

Talin Suciyan is Associate Professor of Turkish Studies at Ludwig Maximilian University of Munich.
