PRAYER FOR REQUIEM – HOKEHANKISD

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

O Christ, Son of God, forbearing and compassionate, have compassion, in your love as our creator, upon the souls of your servants who are at rest, especially upon the souls of your servants (names), for whom we are offering these prayers. Be mindful of them in the great day of the coming of your kingdom. Make them worthy of mercy, of expiation and forgiveness of sins. Glorify them and reckon them with the company of your saints at your right hand. For you are the Lord and creator of all, judge of the living and of the dead. And to you is befitting glory, dominion, and honor, now and unto the ages of ages.

Իր օրհնությունը բերելով նորնշանակ դեսպանին՝ Նորին Սրբությունը մաղթեց վերջինիս արդյունավոր առաքելություն՝ ի նպաստ հայ և վրաց ժողովուրդների դարավոր բարեկամության առավել զորացման:

Ամենայն Հայոց Հայրապետն ընդգծեց, որ երկու ժողովուրդների դարավոր բարեկամության հիմքում նաև քրիստոնեական արժեքներն են, որոնց շնորհիվ հայ և վրաց ժողովուրդները պահպանել են իրենց գոյությունն ու ինքնությունը: Նորին Սրբությունը վստահություն հայտնեց, որ եղբայրական ժողովուրդներն իրենց լավատեսական ոգու և գորեղ հավատքի միջոցով կհաղթահարեն առկա մարտահրավերներն ու փորձությունները:

The Book of Maccabees

Chapter 5 “Wars with Neighboring Peoples”

Chapter 6 “The Last Days of Antiochus Epiphanes”

Chapter 7 “Expedition of Bacchides and Alcimus”

The Book of Daniel Chapter 13 isn't found in all the bibles. It is found in the Jerusalem bible, also in the Vulgate and Catholic bibles. St. Jerome (347-420) while translating the Vulgate, treated this section as an apocryphal addition because it was not present in the Hebrew text of Daniel. In this chapter, we read that there are two bad judges who secretly wanted to have a relationship with Susanna who a beautiful and virtuous wife. One hot day, she takes a bath inside her walled garden but, she does not know that the judges are hiding inside the garden. The two judges tell her that they want to have a relationship with her, but Susanna refuses. When she refuses, they tell the people of the village that they saw Susanna having a relationship with a man who was not her husband. This is called adultery which was punishable by death. The people of the village wanted Susanna to put to death. A boy named David intervenes and does not believe the judges, so he asks one of the judges to go away and the other to tell him what he saw. Daniel does this again with the other judge and affirms that they are lying. The village people believe this man of God, Daniel and the two Judges are put to death.

The Book of Maccabees- This book and the following one gives the account of the successful resistance of the Jewish people to a foreign tyranny. Stress is laid upon the religious nature of the uprising, and the assistance given by God to the Jews. In this book the skill and courage of Judas and his forces in their victory over the Syrian is recounted. The events in the book interpret as God using the military genius of Judas Maccabeus and his brothers as the instrument to achieve the liberation of Judea.

Sunday of the Unjust Judge (LUKE 18:1-8)

In this parable we come face to face with what happens frequently in our society. Those who are in positions of power choose to favor the wealthy or people of influence to the total disregard of the poor and powerless. The judge in this parable was one of the paid magistrates appointed either by Herod or by the Romans. These judges were well known for their dishonorable practice of accepting bribes from plaintiffs in order to sell their cases. Whereas they ignored the poor and the lowly who had no influence. The parable does not liken God to the unjust judge, rather it contrasts him to such a person. Jesus says, "If an unjust judge finally will give justice to a widow who persisted her cause, how much more will God, who is a loving Father, give his children what they need?" Unwavering persistence in prayer is needed. This does not mean that God will give whatever the child asks for. We know that often we do not receive what we have asked for in prayer simply because God knows what would hurt us and what would be good for us. The message is clear: pray unceasingly. Your faith will never be shaken if you end your prayer with 'Thy will be done' since our loving Father knows what is best for us. This parable depicts attitudes of prayer. Devout Jews observed three prayer times daily, 9 a.m., 12 noon, and 3 p.m. Prayer was considered to be effective if it was offered in the Temple.

The Pharisee and the tax collector are portrayed at prayer in the Temple. The Pharisee praised himself and listed all his attributes, contrasting them to others who were there, pointing to the tax collector. "See, how good I am God!" was his motto. The tax collector stood far away in one corner. He couldn't even raise his eyes to heaven, beating his breast simply said, "O God, be merciful to me the sinner." Jesus concluded saying, I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled but those who humble themselves will be exalted". May God enable us to reflect these positive attitudes of prayer to our children as we walk the Lenten journey desirous of becoming more like our Lord Jesus Christ.

Youghakin is made up of two Armenian words: “yough” and “kin.” “Youghakin” literally means the price of oil or donation in lieu of oil. In olden days, prior to electricity, oil lamps and lanterns illuminated homes and worship places. Parishioners donated oil to keep the church lighted. After the invention of electricity, as oil lamps were replaced with electrical lamps, the Armenian Apostolic Church continued asking members to bring symbolic contributions for the illumination of the church through the youghakin program at Christmas and Easter. The context of this practice is inner illumination rather than stewardship. When you send in your youghakin gift, you are not merely helping the church financially but are helping centuries of Armenian faith shine. Through youghakin, you are in effect refueling the traditional symbolic lantern of faith, which St. Gregory the Illuminator lighted.

Good Friday is the day Christians around the world commemorate the death and burial of our Lord Jesus Christ. In the Armenian Church tradition, during the Evening Vespers a tomb is placed in the Chancel of the Church and decorated with flowers and candles, reminding the congregation of the sacrificial crucifixion and death of our Lord for the sake of our salvation. It is a tradition in the Armenian Church for the congregation to bring flowers to the church to decorate the Tomb of the Lord. The flowers are placed on the tomb throughout the service. At the conclusion of the service, they are distributed to the congregation. This year at St. Leon Church, in addition to flowers, the tomb will once again be decorated with indoor potted plants. Every family will be invited to take a plant from the Tomb of the Lord and place it in their homes. As they grow and flourish, these plants will remind each member of our community of the beautiful bond we enjoy with each other and with our Church as our family in Christ.

Please help us maintain this beautiful spiritual custom in our Church. Your donation will help defray the cost of the purchase of these plants.

Dear Parishioners & Friends:

We are thrilled to announce the ACYOA Seniors of St. Leon are hosting the 2023 ACYOA General Assembly & Sports Weekend this coming Memorial Day Weekend. For over 70 years, the young adults of our Diocese have gathered in Christian fellowship at national events to celebrate a shared faith and culture; and this year's weekend will be the continuation of a proud legacy!

With over 350 participants from across the country expected to attend, we could not be more excited to welcome all of them to our spiritual home to see what our community has to offer. Our committee has been working diligently over the past several months coordinating what will prove to be a unique and memorable weekend for all in attendance, including you!

We are writing to ask you for a donation to our Ad Booklet. We have enclosed a convenient form to help you make your donation today! Our Ad Booklet will provide a highly visible platform through which you can offer a personalized message to an individual, or the entire ACYOA community in attendance. All donations are tax-deductible and will help offset the cost of this enormous undertaking.

We are truly humbled by all the encouragement we've received thus far and look forward to partnering with you moving forward in this exciting endeavor.

Sincerely,

CONGRATULATIONS

The Playoff and Championship games were played this past Sunday and are now in the history books. Although we had six Saint Leon teams make the playoffs, only our Girls team was able to win and proceed to the Championship game. In the Championship game our Girls were able to win over the Holy Martyrs Girls Team1. Our Girls team and our Junior Boys team 2 also took the first-place division trophies for their respective divisions. The season turned out to be a tremendous success and everyone was thankful that the league was able to comeback so strong this year. We will continue to have open gym practices until right before Memorial Day weekend and then we will be out for the summer. See below the results from this past Sunday's Championship games at Van Buren H.S. Queens, NY.

Juniors:	Sts Vartanantz 44 over	Holy Martyrs 29
Girls:	St Leons 40 over	Holy Martyrs 14
Seniors:	Holy Martyrs 60 over	APC 37

St. Leon Armenian Church

Paving the Way...Brick by Brick

Assist in paving the way to St. Leon Armenian Church's new education and recreation building. A common area at the entry to the building will consist of engraved bricks. This is a wonderful way to make your support of this facility permanently known. You may choose to have your name, the name of a child or grandchild, birthday, anniversary or graduation day, engraved on the brick. The possibilities are numerous and the help invaluable in meeting our goal of expanding our ministry by expanding our facilities.

There are two sizes to choose from in English and Armenian letters. Each donor will receive a certificate of ownership and the satisfaction of knowing that your support will help our St. Leon family continue to grow in faith in the Armenian Church well into the 21st century.

Saint Leon Church Membership

How do we understand membership in the Armenian Church?

By receiving the sacrament of baptism in the Armenian Church, we are all members. However, per the bylaws of our diocese, membership is further understood as those who annually pay dues to a specific parish.

A dues-paying member is one who takes responsibility for offering their service for the spiritual and financial growth of our parish and in the advancing our Diocesan Christian mission.

“The mission of the Armenian Apostolic Orthodox Church is to preach the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ and to proclaim its message of salvation. This mission is realized through worship, education, witness, service, and the common life in Christ as expressed in the distinctive faith-experience of the Armenian people.”

Further, dues-paying members are eligible to participate in the governance of our parish by voting at the Parish Assembly and may run for office in any of the executive bodies of the various organizations of the parish, including Parish Council.

The St. Leon Parish Assembly has designated the following amounts as the required minimum dues for St. Leon Parish Membership. Please consider becoming a dues-paying member & contribute as generously as the Lord leads you.

Individual (18+): $175
Student (18-24): $50
Senior (65+): $100
