REQUIEM PRAYERS FOR THE LATE PATRIARCH MESROB II
Eastern Diocese request Hokehankisd for the soul of Beatitude Archbishop Mesrob II Mutafyan on the 1st year anniversary of his passing into eternal rest The late 84th Armenian Patriarch of Constantinople entered his eternal rest on March 8, 2019, at age 62, after a long period of illness. In life, Patriarch Mesrob was an impressive clergyman in every respect: learned, physically imposing, resolute in his faith, and courageous in action. His all-too-brief ministry will remain an emblem of both the hopeful promise of the Armenian Church tradition, as well as the tragic realities that have so often beset our people. May our Lord grant rest to his noble servant.

† In Memory of the Victims of Sumgait. The victims include Lola Avakyan (b. 1961), Huri Avakyan (b. 1936), Albert Avanesyan (b. 1955), Valery Avanesyan (b. 1957), Ardash Arakelyan (b. 1937), Armo Aramyan (b. 1928), Arthur Aramyan (b. 1963), Vladimir Arushanyan (b. 1936), Razmel Arushanyan (b. 1939), Arschag Papyayan (b. 1931), Emma Krikoryan (b. 1930), Alexander Hampuryan (b. 1936), Nicola Tanielyan (b. 1939), Seta Tanielan (b. 1938), Gury Mardirosof (b. 1954), Mischa Hampurzumyan (b. 1941), Soghomon Melkonyan (b. 1931), Rahisa Melkonyan (b. 1934), Igor Melkonyan (b. 1957), Yetvart Melkonyan (b. 1960), Irina Melkonyan (b. 1961), Piriuz Melkonyan (b. 1920), Hersille Movsesova (b. 1912), Shahen Sarkisyan (b. 1937), Rafig Tovmasyan (b. 1956), Kapriel Dirtadov (b. 1926), and Tamara Mehdiyeva (b. 1920).

They were killed under torture (4), burned alive (10), and stoned, knifed or axed to death (13), a journalist and parliamentarian Samvel Shahmuradian, age 39 author of The Sumgait Tragedy, died serving in Karabagh, 10 people killed on March 1, 2008 during protests related to the presidential elections.
Ara & Dawn Hourdajian have donated toward the Altar Flowers in Honor of their new grandchild, Lilit Mary Ward, daughter of Sean & Dara Hourdajian Ward and big sister Ani.

PRAYER FOR REQUIEM – HOKEHANKISD
Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy. O Christ, Son of God, forebearing and compassionate, have compassion, in your love as our creator, upon the souls of your servants who are at rest, especially upon the souls of your servants (names), for whom we are offering these prayers. Be mindful of them in the great day of the coming of your kingdom. Make them worthy of mercy, of expiation and forgiveness of sins. Glorify them and reckon them with the company of your saints at your right hand. For you are the Lord and creator of all, judge of the living and of the dead. And to you is befitting glory, dominion and honor, now and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

We commit our sick and shut-ins to our Heavenly Father who cares and watches over all His children. “I will never leave thee nor forsake thee”.
CHURCH ETIQUETTE:
Please be mindful to turn your cell phones off until after Services. Father Diran and the Parish Council sincerely request that parishioners respond to the following, so that our beloved Church may function in a more orderly and respectful manner:

Altar Candles ~ Please note, according to Armenian Church tradition, all Altar Candles must be lit before the beginning of Badarak. Those desiring to light candles in memory of loved ones or friends are requested to notify the Church Office in advance by 12:00 PM of the Wednesday preceding the Sunday of remembrance.

Reverence Required ~ Please be advised that, according to the tradition of the Armenian Church, members of the congregation are strongly reminded to refrain from walking in and out of the Sanctuary while services are in progress. You are especially not to do so during 1) the Chanting of the Gospel, (pg. 17); 2) recitation of the Creed (Havadamk), (pg. 18); 3) the Chalice Procession, (pg. 24-25); 4) Hayr Mer (pg 41); 5) the Hymn, “Der Voghormya,” (pg. 45); and 6) distribution of the Holy Communion, (p. 49). Also, please do not chew gum or cross legs during church services. Please observe the “arrows” in the new liturgy books. They indicate when you should Stand, Sit, or Kneel.

DRESS CODE FOR CHURCH AND SUNDAY SCHOOL
As we worship in our beloved Armenian Church on Sundays and attend Sunday School, let us be mindful that we are in God’s House. Since we are in God’s House, it is important that we dress appropriately. The attire (clothing) we wear on Sundays should be in good taste; therefore, any transparent clothes, shorts and skirts with length above the knees, halter and tank tops, spaghetti straps, jeans, etc, should be avoided. Bare shoulders should be covered with a shawl.

ARMENIAN SCHOOL  the Lahmajun orders are in. Please come and pick them up, please see Barbara Hovsepian. Barbara Is taking reservations for the Lenten Luncheon next week March 15.
BIBLE STUDY Wednesday Night – March 11 & March 25, 2020
TIME: 7:30-9:00 PM. Come join us as we continue our study of Book of Proverbs
Chapter 30 “Sayings of Agur”
Chapter 31 “The Teaching of King Lemuel’s Mother”
Book of Ecclesiastes
Chapter 1 “Reflections of a Royal Philosopher”
Chapter 2 “The Futility of Seeking Wisdom”
Chapter 3 “The Futility of Seeking Wisdom”

Chapters 25 through 29 of the Book of Proverbs are “other proverbs of Solomon that the officials of King Hezekiah of Judah copied” (ch. 25.1).
We studied chapters 26 through 29 Wednesday evening.

The Wisdom literature in Sacred Scriptures — particularly the Books of Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, The Wisdom of Salomon, and the Book of Sirach — make the most “dangerous” readings, because human reason, prudence, and experience occupy a pre-eminent place.

Thus we must exercise utmost vigilance in staying focused on what constitute the principles of “divine foolishness” (1 Cor 3.19) : “For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, “He catches the wise in their craftiness,” (Job 5.12-13) and again, “The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are futile.” (Ps 94.11)

We must, therefor, destroy down to its foundations any “human” wisdom and all its principles, in order to discover, to recognize, and to accept the One to whom we belong, the One who is our Lord.

In the language of the Bible, we must be careful not to eat again and again from the tree that gives us knowledge of good and evil; rather we must strive to collect the fruit of the tree of life, the Cross of the Lord Jesus: “For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. For it is written, “I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart.” Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world?” (1 Cor 1.18 and following).
Any “wisdom,” or “advice,” that fails us in producing the fruits of the Spirit of God defaces the image of the Lord in the likeness of Whom we are made.

KIDNEY DONOR REQUESTS

Robert Ross is one of our St. Leon Parishioners and is in need of a kidney transplant. Please call Marlene Ross for further information (201-410-5840). Any donation of a kidney match or otherwise elevates the patient to the top of the list.

Home Blessing: A New Year's Tradition

Throughout history, Armenian Christians have considered the home to be a sacred place: the tranquil sanctuary of the family, where habits of virtue, pious traditions, and life-affirming customs are passed from one generation to another.

Above all, the home is where one’s faith in God is first kindled, and where that faith finds some of the most profound occasions for action.

According to the traditions of the Armenian Church, God is asked to bestow His blessing on homes during the period following the Feast of the Nativity and Theophany of our Lord. In this season, clergy visit the homes of parishioners and perform the beautiful “Home Blessing” service. (Eastern Diocese)

“All Hail! All Hail!” Alleluia, alleluia! Hearts to heaven and voices raise. Sing to God a hymn of gladness, sing to God a hymn of praise. He who on the cross a Victim for the world’s salvation bled, Jesus Christ the King of Glory, now is risen from the dead. Alleluia, Christ is risen! Death at last has met defeat. See the ancient powers of evil in confusion and retreat. Once he died and once was buried; now he lives forevermore. Jesus Christ, the world’s Redeemer, whom we worship and adore. Christ is risen, Christ the first fruits of the holy harvest field, Which will all its full abundance at his second coming yield. Then the golden ears of harvest will their heads before Him wave, Ripened by his glorious sunshine from the furrows of the grave. Alleluia, alleluia! Glory be to God on high; Alleluia! to the Savior, who has won the victory; Alleluia! to the Spirit, fount of love and sanctity: Alleluia, alleluia! to the Triune Majesty. (Christopher Wordsworth 1865)
Good Friday is the day Christians around the world commemorate the death and burial of our Lord Jesus Christ. In the Armenian Church tradition, during the Evening Vespers a tomb is placed in the Chancel of the Church and decorated with flowers and candles, reminding the congregation of the sacrificial crucifixion and death of our Lord for the sake of our salvation. It is a tradition in the Armenian Church for the congregation to bring flowers to the church to decorate the Tomb of the Lord. The flowers are placed on the tomb throughout the service. At the conclusion of the service, they are distributed to the congregation. This year at St. Leon Church, in addition to flowers, the tomb will once again be decorated with indoor potted plants. Every family will be invited to take a plant from the Tomb of the Lord and place it in their homes. As they grow and flourish, these plants will remind each member of our community of the beautiful bond we enjoy with each other and with our Church as our family in Christ.

Please help us maintain this beautiful spiritual custom in our Church. Your donation will help defray the cost of the purchase of these plants.

Plants for Christ’s Tomb
Yes, I would like to support/maintain the beautiful tradition of our Armenian Church. Enclosed please find the amount of $_________ towards the purchase of plants for Christ’s Tomb. Please return this form with your donation to the Church Office by Wednesday, April 1, 2020. Please print:
